"What's really in that book Duane?"

Trying to look innocent.

"Hi there!"

It isn't all play and no work.

Smiles.

A moment of silence for a change.

"It might work better with the cover off Benny."

Play it again, Pat!

If only we could read!

A senior hard at work?

Are you sure Travolta started this way?

Are the hats free?

Ford Motor Company engineers?

Jerry, showing off his one-in-a-million physique.

Linda with the latest.

Working hard, Rob?

You want to know what I heard?

Were you hungry Anna?

Even losers get lucky sometimes!!

Get your arm off of me, or else!

Second year Honor Society Students.

I think I just got a thorn in my tongue.

Senior Harvest Supper

A Time For Food And Fellowship

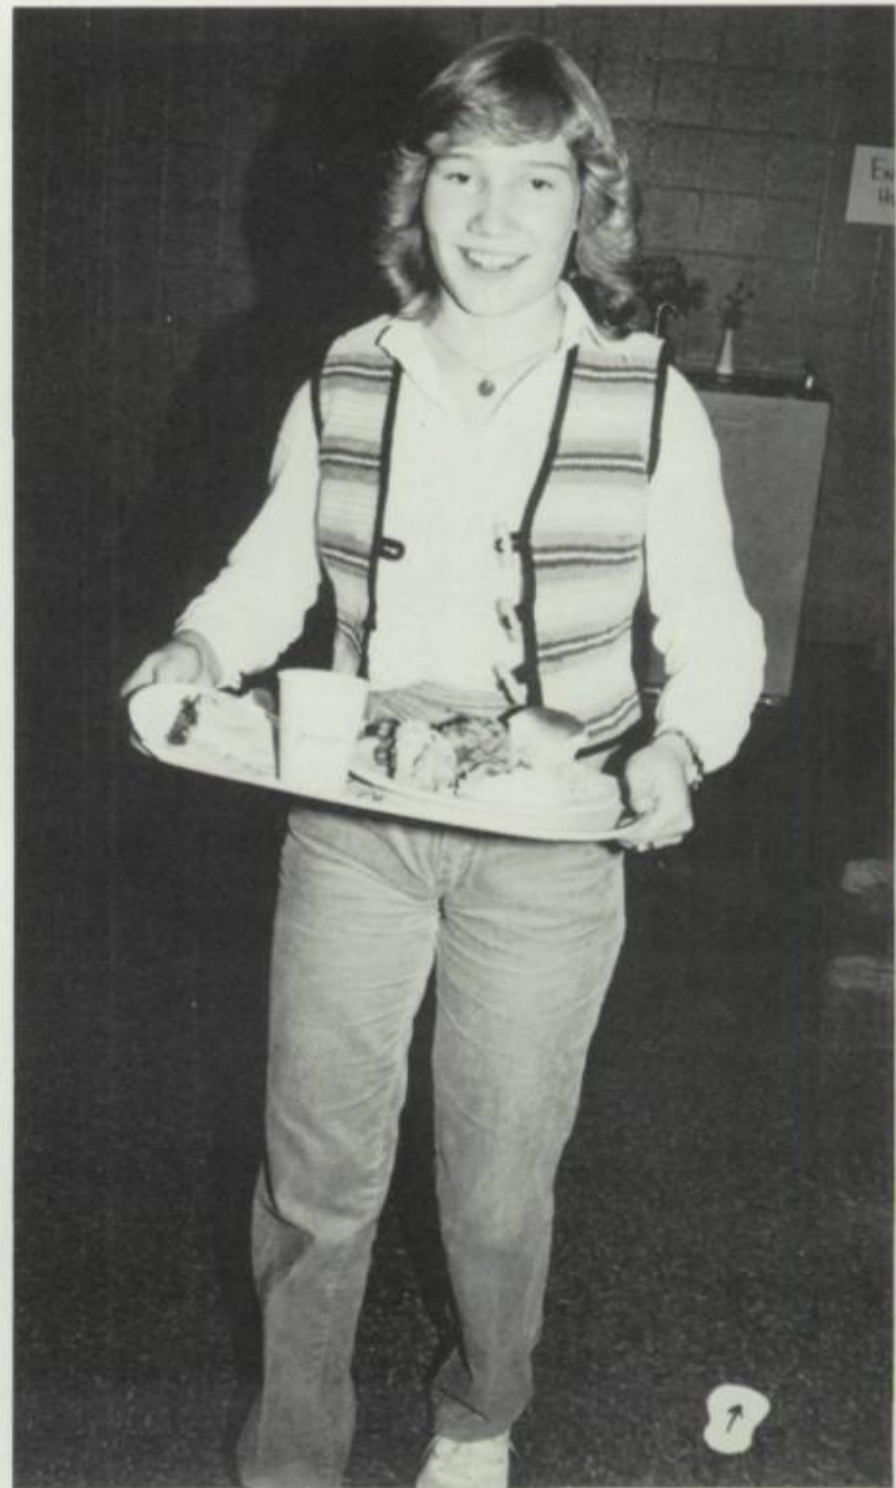

The Senior class held the annual Harvest Supper on October 20th. The pies, cakes, and vegetables were donated by the community, while the class purchased the chicken and steak. A bake sale was also included. The Seniors made a profit of over $1,300 and would like to thank the community for its support.

I hope that this book has helped you recall some of the many memories the 1979-80 school year brought.

I would like to thank the yearbook staff, the Board of Education, Woodard Photographic, Taylor Publishing Company and Tom Keiss. Also, a very special thanks to Mrs. Jones and to you, the 'Skins of the 80's, for making this book possible.

Thank you,

Teresa Graber
